Something to Keep in Mind:

The Lord and His purposes are perfect, but we are not. We are attacked by doubts and fears that many times keep us from living out the purposes that He has established for us. However, we can overcome this by consistently reading and studying His word so that our faith will be made stronger day by day. As we learn of God and pray to Him regularly, we become more encouraged to accomplish great purposes in His Name.

"Where lives are changed, hurts are healed, hope is restored, and Jesus is Lord!"
